

Submissions Document

By now you should have a good concept of what New Seed Industries is all about. We understand that many individuals have works that have yet to be published or marketed and we sincerely would like to see your work grow and flourish in today's market. We are open to all different types of God inspired products. But, they must coincide with our company's goals and objectives. We ask that you submit your work for review, only if you are driven by good intentions and not just seeking money. If you are strictly out for profit, we simply cannot help you.

New Seed Industries, LLC understand that you are not only seeking to have your product(s) published, but you are looking for a company that will put forth great effort in seeing that your product is properly marketed in various venues to receive the most publicity. As with any company, New Seed Industries, LLC cannot guarantee success, but we can guarantee that your product will be properly marketed. New Seed Industries will use various type of venues, as determined applicable, i.e. (product release parties, online retail/book stores, general stores, radio advertisement, direct consumer advertisement, magazine ads and many others.)

Mainly, New Seed Industries wants to see your work(s) succeed. Unlike many other companies we offer the best contracts/agreements along with royalty percentages as high as 40%, compared to a market standard of approx. 20 to 30%. The reason we can be competitive is because we truly desire to see many individuals prosper and to be a blessing to others. So, we ask that you do not hesitate to submit your work to us, so we can develop a long lasting business relationship.

PLEASE NOTE: Every submission simply cannot be accepted. As a company we have a criteria for every product we endorse. In the case that your submission is not accepted, please do not be discouraged or think that it is a reflection of the quality and/or content of your work.
